

Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was established by people who understood the meaning of sacrifice, sharing, and love of family; and,

Whereas, Anne Marshall has been a loyal part of the Pierre Area Office since joining the South Dakota Department of Transportation on November 17, 1986, serving the Department in the positions of Secretary and Senior Secretary; and,

Whereas, In November, 2011, after nearly 25 years of service to the South Dakota Department of Transportation, Anne is retiring; and,

Whereas, Anne's career involved many challenges associated with construction and maintenance throughout the Pierre area, which involved checking countless ticket books, entering timesheets, answering phone calls, typing letters, certifying flaggers, updating road reports, processing vouchers, and keeping the engineering and maintenance staff in line; and,

Whereas, For the past 25 years, Anne has made it her mission to keep the Pierre Area Office functioning, playing mother hen to her co-workers and spoiling them with cookies, cakes, bars, and sharing stories and laughs with those around her; and,

Whereas, Anne has been a devoted sister to Fawn and a proud Aunt to Dillon and Jenny; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 13, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, co-workers, and friends in wishing her the best in the days to come.
